

This week you are practising using an apostrophe for singular possession (an apostrophe to show that something belongs to someone).

Example: Helen has a book → Helen's book

Spelling Group 1 Elephants	Spelling Group 2 Flamingos	Spelling Group 3 Cheetahs
brother's	boy's	were
sister's	girl's	pass
Jane's	brother's	parents
Harry's	sister's	sugar
school's	Jane's	after
horse's	Harry's	plant
family's	dog's	everybody

Challenge: can you write your words in a silly sentence?

e.g. My dog's favourite food is macaroni cheese.
